

California Community Colleges Classified Senate

4CS REGIONS AND AREAS LIST

The State of California and its Community Colleges are divided into five representational "Regions" for the organizational purposes of 4CS membership and governance representation. The five regions are named North, Bay, Central, Coast and South Regions. Each region is divided into three "Areas", for example the North Region includes North 1, North 2, and North 3. The size of the area is based upon the district population, number of colleges, and the distances between colleges.

Each area has an Area Representative that serves as a liaison between 4CS and its members, the local classified senates. Each Area Representative serves on the 4CS Board of Directors (Executive Board). Each year in June, 4CS holds elections to fill those positions that are determined by the bylaws to be open or vacant. Positions are generally a two-year term with the possibility for re-election for existing board members. Since Area Representatives are responsible for a specific "Area", they are elected within that "Area" only (if possible). At the "General Business Meeting" held each June, 4CS officers are elected by their senate delegates across the state.
